Successful participants of the AWHONN Intermediate Fetal Monitoring Course (IFMC) should consider attending the IFMC Instructor Course (IFMC-IC) that trains qualified nurses to teach the workshop.

Description

The IFMC-IC is a one-day course with 8 contact hours that focuses on the principles of adult learning and the application of these principles to AWHONN's IFMC. Participants discuss the role and responsibilities of the instructor, workshop administrative procedures, and basis for workshop content development. Each participant will also be required to present a brief pre-assigned segment of the IFMC during the course.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this workshop, the participant should be able to:

- Explain the principles of the adult learning process.
- Describe the principles of the teaching process.
- Differentiate teaching approaches and instructional methods (i.e., lecture, small group discussion, skill stations and audio visual aids).
- Demonstrate skill in using the Instructor Guide to prepare and teach the IFMC.
- Identify learning methodologies included in the IFMC.
- Demonstrate the ability to conduct the skill station for auscultation or integration of knowledge and skills in the IFMC.
- Describe an external environment that promotes motivation to learn.

Criteria for Participation in the Instructor Course

- Successful completion of a current IFMC.
- A minimum of two years' experience in intrapartum care.
- Current AWHONN membership
- Current clinical involvement in fetal heart monitoring as a staff nurse, manager, clinical nurse specialist, or educator that includes responsibilities for evaluation of clinical skills of others in fetal heart monitoring.
- Maintenance of own professional development in intrapartum care and fetal heart monitoring through attendance at relevant continuing education activities.

A participant who successfully completes the IFMC-IC is considered an instructor candidate until a teach back is successfully completed within 1 year of the class date. It is the responsibility of the instructor candidate to arrange for an evaluation of the first workshop taught.

Continuing Education Credit

- Participants earn 8 contact hours of continuing education credit upon successful completion of the IFMC-IC. Successful completion means that the participant attended the full workshop and passed the micro-teach experience.
- No partial credit will be awarded.
- AWHONN is accredited as a provider of continuing education in nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. AWHONN holds California BRN Provider Number CEP 00580 and Alabama #ABNP 0058.
